Introduction

There may be times when it is useful to limit the number a checkboxes a respondent can check. Maybe you want to have 10 possibilities in a checkbox field, but you only want respondents to check a maximum of 5.

If you are interested in setting up a form with a field like this, you can do so by following the video tutorial below.

Prior to watching this video, you should have a basic knowledge of form building and calculations.
